CLEVELAND, Dec. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Farmers and laborers discovered their joint cause through the primary and thereupon the political and economic picture is safer than it ever before.

William H. Johnston, president of the National Farmers' Union, declared here today in the conference for progressive action over which he is presiding.

The experiment is ended and the preliminary skirmish on behalf of equal and exact justice has been a close one, Johnston said, summarizing the recent election.

Through you, as a result of the fight by your associates, Johnston said, the American people have spoken most emphatically.

On November 7, the stored up of the people was let loose in the so-called primary fight.

The free booters, profiteers, and political puppets of the Harding administration have been exposed.

The American citizens have shown more intelligence than they have before.

They voted with rare candor and magnificent intelligence.

They not only branded the Harding administration with outrage and indignation, but they also showed that they are not only intelligent, but they are also courageous.

GADSKI, OPERA SINGER, DEFIES LEGION POST

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Dec. 11.—Madame Johanna Gadski, had arrived here from San Francisco, and it was said by friends, "only physical" force could prevent her from appearing in concert here tomorrow night. Members and posts of the American Legion and other organizations have asked the board of police commissioners to bar her from the concert stage here because of alleged pro-German sympathies during the world war and because her appearance might result in a "demonstration." It was intimated by the singer's friends that if the board ruled against her she planned to sue the city. It was predicted that representatives of the Merchants and Manufacturers association, the Better Business Bureau and the California Music Trade association would appear before the board today in opposition to the legion and its supporters. Madame Gadski is said to have been informed by counsel "there is no legal means to prevent her concert and that she is entitled to police protection." The police board has been notified by the city attorney that it has the right to instruct the chief of police to "take steps to prevent a riot by prohibiting any event which seemingly would provoke a demonstration."

THREE WOUNDED IN LOS ANGELES FIGHT

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 11.—Marquis Johnson, a negro, was expected to die and two negro women were seriously wounded as the result of an encounter Sunday night between four negroes and two detectives of the Automobile club of Southern California. A shotgun was fired by a police in the shooting, according to a police report. The detectives charged that the four negroes were in a stolen automobile. The detectives say they fired to halt the car and later in self-defense. The three wounded persons were taken to a hospital. The fourth negro, occupying the car, escaped unhurt.

PROPER EDUCATION AS DIVORCE REMEDY

CHICAGO, Dec. 11.—Proper education of children in the problems of married life as a remedy for the large number of divorces was suggested by Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Denver, father of the juvenile court, in an address Sunday night. He pointed out that last year, 39,000 couples were married in Chicago, while 12,000 divorces were granted. He said that the youth of today were educated to the problems of married life and encouraged to marry. "If we have families, marriage would be more stable," he said.

NO VALUABLES TAKEN

Trio Foiled in Juab County Before They Ransack Safe

NEPHI, Utah, Dec. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Members of the Juab county sheriff's force today were searching for three men who attempted early Sunday morning to rob the First National bank.

A pistol duel followed discovery of the robbers in a bank, and one of their number is believed to have been wounded.

Nothing of value was obtained by the bandit trio as they were surprised soon after they entered the bank building.

A complete set of burglars' tools was found Sunday night cased in a railroad car, and this was said to be the property of the robbers.

Night Marshal Ernie Brough of Nephi is given credit for having discovered and driven off the robbers. He started firing at them as soon as he found them in the bank building.

AMNESTY ASKED FOR WARTIME PRISONER

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—Resolutions calling upon President Harding to grant a Christmas amnesty to prisoners held for violation of the wartime espionage act were approved here at a public meeting arranged by the joint amnesty committee. Speakers included Representatives Winifred Mason Huck of Illinois; Mrs. Harriet Stanton Blatch, of New York; Professor Paul Brissenden, of Columbia university, and Dr. John A. Ryan, director of the department of social action of the National Catholic Welfare council. Mrs. Huck said, that as a representative at large from Illinois, it is her privilege "to stress the woman's point of view, to represent the mothers, the sisters, the wife and the daughters as a definite duty in my representation of my state."

It was Mrs. Blatch, one of the leaders in the suffrage movement, who proposed general amnesty before Christmas for the 62 men still in federal prisons.

CHILEANS REPORT MORE EARTH SHOCKS

SANTIAGO, Chile, Dec. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Strong earth shocks were felt at Iquique and Ovalle early today, according to advices received here. State railway officials said that communication north of the latter town has been interrupted and that Coquimbo did not answer calls. The shocks were felt very strongly at Los Andes, but apparently extended no farther south than Valparaiso, where a tremor was noticed.

The center of the disturbances is believed to have been in the Valparaiso district, where the recent disturbances occurred.

Thirteenth Ballot Lucky for Editor Who Killed Rival In News Quarrel

DURANGO, Colo., Dec. 11.—Rod S. Day, editor of the Durango Democrat, was found not guilty of the charge of murder for which he was tried in connection with the death of William L. Wood, city editor of the Durango Herald, last April. The verdict was returned at 8 o'clock this morning after 13 ballots had been given to the court. The verdict was given to the court approximately 24 hours after the case went to the jury, but it was reported about 9 o'clock Sunday night, when the jury reported to the court that a decision had been agreed upon, the court ordering the jurors to be locked up for the night with instructions to return their verdict this morning. According to testimony given at the trial, Day and Wood became enemies through a newspaper controversy. They met on the street early one morning and heated words led to blows. Day testifying in his own behalf declared that Wood, a man considerably his physical superior, refused to back down and struck him in the face. Fearing the consequences of an impending assault, he said he drew his automatic revolver and shot from the hip. The first bullet inflicted a mortal wound. A second shot, Day said, was fired by him unintentionally in the excitement. The case has attracted state-wide interest owing to the prominence of the principals. The court room was thronged daily and when the jury retired shortly after midnight Saturday night, women and children remained in the court room, many of them sitting on benches and doing so for hours waiting for the verdict to be returned.

Breakup Comes Over Failure To Agree On German Reparations

Adjournment Until January 2 Taken to Give Time for Agreement; Meanwhile U. S. Will Be Asked to Forgive France Her Debt if England Also Agrees to Cancel

LONDON, Dec. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—The conference of allied premiers, called to arrange the basis for an allied financial and reparations conference in Brussels, has broken down. It was announced at 6 o'clock this evening that the premiers had taken adjournment until January 2.

After the conference adjourned, Premier Poincare said: "It is finished."

The January 2 meeting will be held in Paris, it was announced tonight.

LONDON, Dec. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—Adjournment of the premiers' conference tonight for eight days in order to avert an open rupture between Great Britain and France over the German reparations, has been virtually decided upon, it was learned today. The British cabinet rejected the measures of force for the Ruhr district upon which Premier Poincare insisted.

Prime Minister Bonar Law informed Premier Poincare that British public opinion was overwhelmingly opposed to any military measures against Germany.

Poincare had made a demand for the occupation of the Ruhr as a guarantee for the German moratorium.

RESUME IN EIGHT DAYS. The conference probably will resume its session in eight days in London. Meanwhile it is hoped that some guarantees may be found which will satisfy the French and at the same time make military action unnecessary. It was stated in French circles that the imminent adjournment was merely a maneuver to prevent an open break among the allies particularly between France and England and that there was little likelihood of finding a common basis of agreement between England and France.

It was further pointed out that in spite of Premier Poincare's desire to co-operate with the new British government, he has been forced largely by the political situation at home to demand the Ruhr as the price of any concession to Germany.

The meeting of the premiers scheduled for this noon was postponed until 4 o'clock. It was expected that in the meantime private interviews would take place among the premiers in an effort to save the conference from what seemed this morning inevitable postponement.

DECISION WITH U. S. WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—It was stated in an authoritative American quarter that the chief hope of bringing the British and French together during the period of adjournment to which the conference now seems doomed, lies with the United States. It was said that England will probably ask the American government if it is willing to cancel the French debt to the United States provided England in turn cancels the French debt to Great Britain and enters a definite agreement with the American government, ultimately to pay the British debt to America.

This suggestion was made informally Sunday evening to a certain important American now in London and it will probably be presented directly to Secretary Hughes this week.

DEBT CANCELLATION. Great Britain is said to look favorably on the cancellation of the French debt due her, provided the United States cancels the French debt to America. It is the belief of British officials that the United States officials will be willing at least to attend a conference at which such a proposition could be thoroughly discussed. It was also stated in American circles today that the definite agreement to pay the British debt to the United States might be accomplished by a proposal for a long period, say 60 years, in which only interest would be paid. It was explained that this was on the theory that the United States was primarily interested in securing the ultimate payment of the British debt, rather than an immediate settlement.

In conference quarters, it was the general view that France had indicated her willingness to give up military penalties in return for the cancellation of debts by the United States and Great Britain and would be ready also to give a long moratorium to Germany.

NOBEL PEACE PRIZE GOES TO DR. NANSEN

The award was made to Dr. Nansen's work in relieving the starving populations of Russia and Asia Minor on behalf of the league of nations and for his endeavors to promote a brotherhood of nations.

SLEUTH SAYS NO PLACE IS SAFE FOR HER

U. S. Has No Treaty With Mexico for Return of Criminals

THIS FAVORS CLARA

But Sleuth Declares Woman Eventually Must Face Justice

BY HARRY HUNT
NEA Staff Writer.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.—"Clara Phillips is in Mexico, of course."

That's the answer, given emphatically and without hesitation, by William J. Burns, world famous detective and chief of the United States secret service, to the query:

"Where is Clara Phillips, escaped Los Angeles hammer murderer?"

"What chance has she of evading capture?" I then asked the famous detective chief.

"No place is safe for her," Burns replied. "Even if she evades immediate capture, the chances are she will be turned up and identified sooner or later, and brought back to face justice."

"But in her favor, temporarily at least, is the fact that at present we have no treaty of extradition with Mexico, as this government has no official relationship with the present government in Mexico."

"Nicaragua would be another comparatively safe refuge, and has long been a favorite place with escaped criminals and fugitives."

In almost any European country she probably would be identified. Italy would offer the only comparative safety in Europe, as extradition from that country always has been difficult.

EXTRADITION DIFFICULT. "My belief, however, is that she headed straight into Mexico and is there long before this. Locating her there will not be the only difficulty. Getting her back, in view of the lack of extradition agreements, would be complicated. And the opportunities for safe hiding there are many."

"It is mighty seldom, however, that an escaped convict finds permanent safety. Once in a while a man is hanged after 10 or 15 years. Recaptures after two or three years are frequent. They are mighty few who, after a few months or a year or two, do not return to the states if not to their old haunts."

"An instance of how captures are effected after long chases is that of Schmidt and Kaplan, whom I arrested three years after the blowing up of the Los Angeles Times. One of them we got on Broadway, the other on a little island up near Tacoma, Wash."

ALL SERVICES HELP. "Another celebrated case was that of the fellow wanted in connection with the disappearance of a Montreal theatre owner—Small, I believe his name was. A Burns operative located him in a little town away up in Oregon."

"The coordination established between federal, state, county and municipal authorities by the federal bureau of identification now makes it virtually impossible for anyone so to change or disguise themselves as to escape identification. Bertillon measurements sometimes err."

"Physical characteristics covered by those measurements change. But fingerprints remain unchanged throughout life and they will make it possible to identify Mrs. Phillips when she is located or ventures back into the states again—whether next year or 10 years from now."
